CORAM: DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

27th November, 2006.

P.C. :

The Chamber Summons has been served. All the contesting parties are before the Court. Hence by consent the Chamber Summons is taken on Board. The Sixth Defendant has expired. Defendants 18, 19, 20 and 21 are his legal heirs and representatives who are already on the record. The Chamber Summons is in the circumstances made absolute in terms of prayer clause (a). However, counsel appearing for the Plaintiffs seeks an amendment only in respect of items A, D (except the bracketed portion) and E of the Schedule to the Chamber Summons. The Chamber Summons shall accordingly be made absolute in respect of items A, D (except the bracketed portion) and E of the Schedule. Amendment to be carried out within four weeks.

Suit to be placed on 7th December, 2006.
